

Q Didn't find any automatic gun - where did you find these papers when you found them?

A Found them in a pile of old scrap papers underneath a bundle of old picture frames.

Q What date?

A Well, I can't remember the date.

Q How long after Mr. Beekman died?

A I should judge about two weeks, wasn't it Judge? When we cleaned out the room?

COURT: I don't want to be understood as testifying, but it was about two weeks.

Q After you cleaned out the room you took them to your home?

A Yes.

Q Did you examine them in the room before you took them to your home?

A No.

Q When did you examine them?

A Not until about a week ago.

Q Where did you find these statements?

A I just told you where I found them.

Q When you looked for them at your home. You say you didn't know them in the office building. You say you found them in your home after somebody began to talk about an iron box. Did you find an iron box?

A Sure, the box is there now.
